SUBLIMATION

Sublimation is a transfer to polyester fabric of any graphic designs in very high resolution. Our company has many years of experience and a modern machine park for sublimating sports production.

Our team of graphic designers creates unique projects for each team club or even an individual athlete. In order to ensure the highest quality of services - we prepare patterns according to customer's guidelines, adjust colors, make test prints.

Sublimated products are characterized by:

- the highest durability
- the possibility of making any graphic patterns not achievable in the production in other technologies
- the possibility of production in small parties from several pieces
- individual approach to each client
